ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 319(2), 318(4), 336(2), 338, 336(3), 340(2), 344 and 61(2) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.9 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant purchased the land in S.No. 642/2C, measuring to an extent of 13 cents situated at Meelakaram Village, Tenkasi District. Thereafter, she found that the first accused along with other accused persons had created a forged death certificate as well as forged legal heir certificate of the defacto complainant. Based on which, he executed power of attorney deed and sale deed. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is only a document writer and he is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant
