ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC, in Crime No.832 of 2019, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners received a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- for their family needs, from the defacto complainant. Thereafter, the petitioner has not returned the above said amount. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and it is purely a civil transaction. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and it is purely a civil transaction, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on
