The petitioner/A1, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 352,406,494,,506(2) of IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.47 of 2019, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that A1 had an extra marital relationship with A2. On 04.04.2017 when the defacto complainant asked A1 for household expenses he abused her in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences Subsequently A1 snatched the thali of the defacto complainant and pushed her and the children away from the house. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence, thereby he seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side)appearing for the respondent would submit that it is family dispute between the husband and wife and the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences Subsequently A1 snatched the thali of the defacto complainant and pushed her and the children away from the house , thereby he would oppose for grant of anticipatory bail.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the investigation is almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sathankulam, Thoothukudi District within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a]the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b]the petitioner shall co-operate with the investigation and appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.

[c]the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

Crl.O.P.(MD)No.15636 of 2025

[d]the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
