The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 356(2) of BNS, in Crime No.41 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The prosecution's case is that the petitioner abused a woman Karakattam dancer through social media, including Facebook, and also used filthy and derogatory language against the defacto complainant. It is further alleged that the petitioner posted offensive comments in the comment section, thereby portraying Karakattam in a demeaning and disrespectful manner. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation is still pending. However, she opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which, the order copy was made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Pattukottai, Thanjavur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate Court, Pattukottai, Thanjavur District, and on further conditions that:
