The victim has received the stolen article and he has not interested in prosecuting the case and both accused and the recovery witness where about not known. Non bailable warrant is pending for the past ten years. It is noted that the accused belongs to State of Karnataka. Despite the best efforts made by the investigating agency, the accused has not been secured for more than ten years. Even if the accused secured and trial would have been conducted, the chance of conviction is bleak and case is pending from 2015 onwards and the right of speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution of India also impinged, this court inclined the quash the matter by exercise the power under section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

5. Accordingly, this Sua Motu Special Tr.(MD). case stands closed on the following terms:
