2.The order impugned in this writ petition is appealable. The petitioner is relegated to avail the appeal remedy. If the appeal is filed within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order, it shall be entertained without reference to limitation. The petitioner of course has to pay 25% of the disputed tax amount as a pre-deposit. The learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner states that it would cause grave hardship to the assessee. Taking note of the said submission, the appeal to be filed by the assessee shall be disposed of within a period of five months from the date of filing of the appeal. In the event of of the petitioner succeeding the appeal, any amount refundable to him shall be done immediately thereafter. I have not gone into the merits of the matter. All the contentions of the petitioner are left open.

3.This writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
