ORDER

This petition is to quash the impugned final report for the offence 11(2), 11(6) r/w Section 12 of POSCO Act, 2012.

2.The gist of the allegations in the final report is that the petitioner had induced the victim girls to expose their private parts by lifting their dresses on the promise of giving Rs.10/- to each and thus committed the aforesaid offences.

3.The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the victim girls are aged about 11 and 9 years respectively; that the statement of one of the victim girls shows that the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C was not recorded immediately and that there are several disputes pending between the petitioner and the defacto complainant in respect of a property.

Crl.O.P.(MD) No.16725 of 2025

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor per contra would submit that the trial has commenced and that the points raised by the petitioner cannot be adjudicated in the quash petition.

5.The question as to whether the allegations are false cannot be adjudicated in the quash petition. Even according to the petitioner, one of the victim girls had given a statement accusing him. The trial has also commenced. The question of whether the complaint is motivated and is false, can only be adjudicated before the trial Court.

6.Therefore, this Court is not inclined to quash the impugned the proceedings. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to raise all these grounds before the trial Court. The trial Court shall consider the same without being influenced by any of the observations made in this order. Since the petitioner is aged about 61 years, the petitioner's appearance before the trial Court is dispensed with on all hearing dates (provided he is represented by his lawyer) unless his appearance is required by the learned Magistrate for the progress of the trial.
