ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners / accused Nos.1 to 3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 110(1), 118(2), 351(3) of BNS read with Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.315 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 30.08.2025, a fight broke out due to a property dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. The defacto complainant and the petitioners were injured and were admitted in the hospital. They were treated and discharged from the hospital on the same day. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed by this Court. He therefore prays for grant of

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the offences committed by the petitioners are serious in nature. However, injured discharged from hospital.

5. Considering the fact that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbors, there is a property dispute between them, and there is no previous case against the petitioners and injured discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed
