IPC, in Crime No.17 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the wife of the accused. In the year 2022 the 1st accused expressed that his father holds the high post in a political party and a lecturer job is vacant at Madurai Waqf Board College. By believing his words, the defacto complainant gave Rs. 50,00,000/- in the month September 2022, and a sum Rs. 10,00,000/- in the month November 2022. After receiving the money, the 1st accused neither arranged for job nor returned the money. When the petitioner requested for return of money, the 1st accused gave the 2nd accused cheque and the same was also returned for insufficient fund. On 10.05.2024, when he requested for refund of money, both the accused abused him with filthy language and threat him with dire consequences. Hence the present case.

3.The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and she has not committed any offence. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the

5.Considering the fact that the petitioner's husband is involved in the transaction and the petitioner is the wife of the 1st accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Trichy, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lakh Only), to the credit of Crime No.17 of 2025 before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Trichy. After receipt of entire amount, the learned Judicial Magistrate, shall deposit the said amount in an interest bearing Fixed

Deposit in any Nationalized Bank initially for a period of one year and renew them periodically until the final order/Judgment is passed in the case in Crime No.17 of 2025. The learned Judicial Magistrate or Trial Court shall pass orders regarding entitlement of the said amount in its final order/Judgment.

[c]the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[d]the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[g]If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS.
