ORDER

This Criminal Original Petition has been filed seeking to quash the final report in C.C.No.78 of 2025 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti, Madurai District, filed against the petitioner for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, and 506(2) of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

2. The allegation in the final report is that the petitioner was a tenant in the property belonging to the second respondent/defacto complainant; that on account of a dispute, when the second respondent/defacto complainant, along with his son, insisted the petitioner to vacate the premises, the petitioner abused them in filthy language, attacked them with his hands, and threatened them with dire consequences, and thus committed the aforesaid offences.

3. Admittedly, the petitioner and the second respondent/defacto complainant were friends, on the basis of which the premise was rented to the petitioner. The parties have now entered into a compromise and decided to give a quietus to the entire dispute. The parties have filed a

JOINT COMPROMISE MEMO

1. The Petitioner has filed the above Criminal Original Petition seeking to quash the criminal proceedings in C.C. No. 78 of 2025 on the file of the Learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Vadipatti, arising out of Crime No.276 of 2024, registered for the offences under Sections 294(b), 323, and 506(2) of IPC.

2. The dispute between the Petitioner and the Second Respondent arose out of personal and property-related issues. However, due to the intervention of elders, well-wishers, and mutual friends, both parties have amicably resolved their differences and have decided to give quietus to the above said dispute.
3. It is submitted that the 2nd Respondent/De-facto complainant has no objection to quashing the criminal proceedings pending against the Petitioner in the above case and has voluntarily agreed to withdraw all allegations made in the complaint.
4. The dispute was purely civil in nature arising out of a tenancy/license agreement regarding the use of vacant land. The criminal complaint was lodged in the heat of the moment during a personal misunderstanding, which has now been amicably resolved.
5. Both parties submit that the compromise has been arrived at voluntarily, without any coercion or undue influence, and in the interest of maintaining peace and continuing good relations between them.
6. Both parties now understand that continuation of the criminal proceedings would only lead to unnecessary hardship, waste of time and resources, and further strain their restored relationship.

5. In view of the same and considering the nature of the offences and the relationship between the parties, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the impugned final report pending trial.
