The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 316 (5) and 49 of BNS, in Crime No.53 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the land belongs to the defacto complainant. Further, the petitioner along with other accused persons have collected a lumpsum amount as rent from several tenants from the defacto complainant's complex building by using his position as power agent. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD)No.17261 of 2025

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the investigation is still pending. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Intervenor submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons had cheated the defacto complainant. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a some amount to the credit of crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Madurai District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction
