The petitioner seeks a direction to transfer the investigation in Crime No.449 of 2023, which was registered based on the complaint given by the petitioner, from the third respondent to any other competent officer.

2. According to the petitioner, in respect of the same incident, two complaints were registered one in Crime No.450 of 2023 against the petitioner for the offences under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC and another complaint filed by the petitioner in Crime No.449 of 2023, Though the petitioner had stated to the respondent police that seven persons were involved in the occurrence, the FIR was registered only against three persons and the respondents are conducting the investigation in a biased manner.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents would submit that since there is a case and counter case, the respondents would follow PSO 566 and the guidelines issued by the Full Bench of this Court in Balaji Vs The State of Tamil Nadu in
