impugned order passed by the second respondent dated 18.09.2025 in Cr.M.P.No.55/GOONDA/2025.

2.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents would submit that the convict prisoner was given sufficient treatment. Though the Doctor advised the convict prisoner for surgery, he has not cooperated for the same. He has also produced the medical records. Further, the convict prisoner is in District Jail, Theni and he is also taking treatment in Government Medical College and Hospital, Theni, at Aundipatti.

3.Heard both sides and perused the records.

4.Considering all the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the order passed by the second respondent. Therefore, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed. However, if the convict prisoner needs any treatment, the jail authority is hereby directed to provide better treatment to the convict prisoner in
