alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 27.09.2025. Hence, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner has no previous cases. He further submitted that the daughter in law of the defacto complainant was stay in the house and send her away. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the daughter in law of the defacto complainant, who is staying in the house, is directed to vacate the house and the daughter in law shall stay away from the house and the defacto complainant shall stay in the said house. Further, considering the fact that the petitioner has no previous cases and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)
