CRL OP(MD). No.17877 of 2025

WEB COPY ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 85, 79 and 351(2) of BNS, in Crime No.43 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are in-laws of the defacto complainant. The petitioners abused her in filthy language, modesty of the defacto complainant and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the petitioners are in-laws of the defacto complainant. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that the petitioners are in-laws of the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvidamaruthur, Thanjavur District. In the event of any change in his residential address, the petitioners shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvidamaruthur, Thanjavur District;

(c) the petitioners shall report before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation;

(d) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(e) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(f) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners
