2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons robbed money from the defacto complainant, when the same was questioned, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him using knife and caused grievous injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the injured discharged from hospital and there are six previous cases pending against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, inspite of six previous cases pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to
