109(1), 351(3) of BNS in Crime No. 519 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 18.09.2025, the defacto complainant and other officials of the respondent Police were doing patrolling duty. At that time, when the Police officials intercepted the petitioner, he ran away from that place. He scolded them by using filthy language, assaulted them with weapons and thereafter, escaped from that place. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he has been arrested and he is languishing in jail from 18.09.2025. Therefore, he prays for grant of bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that there are four previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant bail.
