CRL OP(MD). No.17964 of 2025

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and A1 were in love and on false promise to marry her, A1 had sexual intercourse with the defacto complainant and later, he refused to marry her and the second petitioner/mother of A1 tried to arrange marriage with another girl. The petitioners/A3&A4 are sister and mother of the first accused and while the defacto complainant questioned the same, both of them were threatened the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. Further, the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there is the specific overtact against the petitioners is they have threatened the defacto complainant and the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and the specific overtact against the petitioners is they have threatened the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Mahila Judge cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Madurai, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a]the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for one week and thereafter as and when required;

[c]the petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

P.J.L.

[f]If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS.
