The petitioner seeks to quash the impugned charge sheet in C.C.No.931 of 2025, on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Trichy which was filed for the offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(3) of BNS.

2.The allegation in the charge sheet is that the petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant; that due to a matrimonial dispute, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked her with hands and also threatened her with dire consequences and thus, committed the aforesaid offences.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned counsel for the defacto complainant/the second respondent would submit that the parties have now entered into a compromise on the advise of the elders and well-wishers and both the parties have agreed that the impugned final report may be quashed.

4.The parties have also filed a joint compromise memo dated 11.10.2025. The scanned copy of the compromise memo reads as follows:

was arrived between the Petitioner and the 2nd Respondent. On the advice of the family elder, the Petitioner as well as the 2nd Respondent voluntarily came forwarded to have an amicable settlement, as a result of which the present Compromise Memo for quashing the above-said case.

2. The Petitioner and the 2nd Respondent further submit that the Petitioner and the Defacto Complainant now reunion and happily leading their matrimonial life as husband and wife with their son.
3. The Petitioner and the 2nd Respondent further submit that during the pendency of the proceeding, at the intervention of the elders, both the parties have sat together, in which an amicable conclusion has been arrived at and as one part of a conclusion, the 2nd Respondent has agreed to say no objection for the purpose of quashing the present criminal proceeding.
4. The Petitioner as well as the 2nd Respondent jointly submit that such compromise has been taken place purely with an intention to settle all the issues among them and it is purely voluntary by the parties concerned. Hence, in order to avoid further ordeal of trial before the Trial Court, they are preferred to be present before this Hon'ble Court whenever it is required.
5. The Petitioner as well as the 2nd Respondent jointly submit that this Hon'ble Court by taking into consideration of the above said aspects with regard to the compromise and in the interest of the parties, can leniently look into the present issue, as such the prayer sought for by the Petitioner can be allowed.

CRL OP(MD), No.18270 of 2025

5.The petitioners, namely, Ishak Khan (Aadhaar No.5076 1755 3566) and the second respondent, namely, Vanitha (Aadhaar No.3246 3014 9581) are present before this Court in person. They are identified by Mr.S.Prasad, Head Constable, Trichy City. All the parties confirmed the compromise arrived at between them.

6.Considering the nature of the offences and the fact that it is a matrimonial dispute and that the parties have arrived at a compromise, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the impugned charge sheet pending trial. Accordingly, the impugned charge sheet in C.C.No.931 of 2025 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Trichy, is quashed and the Criminal Original Petition stands allowed.
