2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, when the defacto complainant fixing CCTV camera in his property, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant using filthy language and attacked him using iron rod and caused grievous injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners and the injured has already been discharged. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

CRL OP(MD). No.18029 of 2025

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioners have no previous cases and the injured has already been discharged, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with one surety each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Usilampatti, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand only) to the credit of the crime number. On such deposit the learned Magistrate shall accept the sureties;
