CRL OP(MD). No.18162 of 2025

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the father of the accused persons. It is alleged that the petitioner and other accused not maintained the defacto complainant and forcibly taken Rs.11,56,500/- and some jewels from the defacto complainant's house. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that investigation is yet to be completed and However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and co-accused were already granted anticipatory bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

CRL OP(MD). No.18162 of 2025

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thuraiyur, Trichy District, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police as and when required;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
