The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 9(B)(1)(b) of the Indian Explosives Substances Act, 1884, in Crime No.159 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons are in illegal possession of crackers in their vehicle without any valid permission. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. He further submitted that the petitioner possesses a valid explosives licence for digging the well, and therefore, this case does not fall under the purview of the Explosives Act. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) opposed for
