On 21.09.2013, during the annual maintenance of the windshield, an iron chain covering the generator accidentally broke, causing the generator to fall and resulting in an accident that led to the death of two persons. Therefore, a case was registered in Crime No. 267 of 2013 for the offence punishable under Section 304(A) of IPC and upon completion of investigation, final report filed and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.400428 of 2016 and the same was pending without trial for more than nine years.

4. Discussion:

4.1 Today, the learned Judicial Magistrate has appeared through video conference. The accused and the police official were present before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court. The accused has filed an admission petition and pleaded guilty and seeks leniency in imposing punishment.

4.2. This Court explains the contents of the accusation to the accused, and he admits the contents of the admission petition and pleads guilty. Thus, this court satisfies the admission petition filed without any coercion or threat.

4.3. In view of the above admission and pleading of guilty of the accused, and considering the material allegation made in the final report did not relate to the economic and heinous offence and his conduct is good and the case is pending for more than nine years without trial and the same impinge the fair and speedy trial as envisaged under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, this Court is inclined to admit the petition and convict the accused for the offence under Section 304(A) of IPC.

5. Discussion on the question of sentence:-

5.1. Hon'ble Thiru. Justice D. Bharatha Chakravarthy has considered number of Hon'ble Supreme Court Judgments and passed order in suo moto W.P.(MD) No. 618 of 2025 on 01.09.2025 and framed sentencing policy with reference to the offence under Section 304(A) IPC. This case also comes under said parameter as the accident is not due to any aggravated or egregious conduct.

5.2. The accused is aged about 49 years and he is working as a supervisor and he has not involved in further offence and considering the mitigating circumstances, and following the law laid down by the Hon'ble
