ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 15.09.2025 for the offences punishable under Section 108 of BNS, Act, in Crime No.258 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is alleged to have contacted one Ramani, a widow, and falsely promised to marry her. However, the petitioner subsequently married another woman. When Ramani came to know of this, she went to the petitioner's house, where all the accused persons abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened her. As a result, Ramani consumed poison and committed suicide. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 15.09.2025. Hence, he seeks bail to the

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders. He has to co-operate for the investigation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner is released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
