The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 189(2), 296(b), 118(1), 324(4) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.78 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons, went to the bar of the defacto complainant, and there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, as a result of which, the petitioner along with other accused persons had attacked the defacto complainant with Aruval and damaged the chair of the bar. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.18779 of 2025

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that there are 6 previous cases pending against the petitioner and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Singapunari, Sivagangai District, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:
