CRL OP(MD). No.18901 of 2025

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a wordy quarrel arose between the accused person and the defacto complainant, the accused persons trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and attacked him, his wife and his father who was physically challenged person and also his brother and also damaged an Omni car and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution, and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that injured has been discharged from hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

CRL OP(MD). No.18901 of 2025

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital and considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with a common surety for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti, Madurai District, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders;

CRL OP(MD). No.18901 of 2025

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners are released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560]; and

[f] if the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS.
