imprisonment up to 3 years pending at trial, appeal or revision stage for more than 3 years and also offences like Section 506(ii) of IPC and others, which may carry a punishment of more than 3 years in the state of Tamil Nadu with reference to the 14 Districts coming under the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court”.

2. This Dedicated Bench has taken the C.C.No.40 of 2021 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Oddanchatram Taluk, Dindigul as Suo motu Special Tr.Case.(MD) No.16667 of 2025 in Suo Motu W.P.(Crl.).(MD).No.1014 of 2025, upon proper scrutiny and suitability as a fit case warranting the exercise of power under Article 226 of Constitution of India to pass suitable order in the said C.C., pending more than four years without any precedent value in this pilot project.

3. Brief facts of the prosecution case in C.C.No.40 of 2021:

On 20.10.2020 at about 03.45 p.m, a vehicle driven by the accused caused an accident, resulting in the death of one person. Therefore, a case was registered in Crime No.2204 of 2020 for the offence under Sections 279 & 304(A) of IPC and upon completion of investigation, final report filed and the same was taken on file in C.C.No. 40 of 2021 and the same was pending without trial for more than four years.

4. Discussion:

4.1 Today, the learned Judicial Magistrate has appeared through video conference. The accused and the police official were present before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court. The accused has filed an admission petition and pleaded guilty and seeks leniency in imposing punishment.

4.2. This Court explains the contents of the accusation to the accused, and he admits the contents of the admission petition and pleads guilty. Thus, this court satisfies the admission petition filed without any coercion or threat.

4.3. In view of the above admission and pleading of guilty of the accused, and considering the material allegation made in the final report did not relate to the economic and heinous offence and his conduct is good and the case is pending for more than four years without trial and the same impinge the fair and speedy trial as envisaged under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, this Court is inclined to admit the petition and convict the accused for the offence under Sections 279 & 304(A) of IPC.

5. Discussion on the question of sentence:-

5.1. Hon'ble Thiru. Justice D. Bharatha Chakravarthy has considered number of Hon'ble Supreme Court Judgments and passed order in suo moto W.P.(MD) No. 618 of 2025 on 01.09.2025 and framed sentencing policy with reference to the offence under section 304(A) IPC. This case also comes under said parameter as the accident is not due to any aggravated or egregious conduct.

Suo Motu TR.(MD).No. 16667 of 2025

5.2. The accused is aged about 30 years and he is working as driver and he has not involved in further offence and considering the mitigating circumstances, and following the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sunita Devi Vs. State of Bihar and another reported in 2014 SCC Online SC 984, 2025 INSC 1014 (K.Ponnammal Vs. State) and also taken into account that the victim received the compensation and he also not interested in prosecuting the case and the accused also regularly appearing before the Court for the past four years and also on the reiterated the principle of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of M.W.Mohiuddin V. State of Maharashtra reported in (1995) 3 SCC 567 and B.G.Goswami V. Delhi Administration reported in (1974) 3 SCC 85 that delay itself amounts to punishment, which must weigh in sentencing and disposal, this court is inclined to impose a fine of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with a default sentence of two months simple imprisonment.
