ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by P.VELMURUGAN, J.)

The order passed by the first respondent dated 12.09.2025 refusing to grant leave to the petitioner, who is a convict prisoner in C.C.No.33 of 2013 is under challenge in this writ petition.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that he lost his wife and his only daughter is living in his relative's house. For making arrangements for a better stay of her daughter to pursue her study, leave to the petitioner is absolutely necessary. However, the first respondent has refused to consider the leave application of the petitioner. Hence, the petitioner is before this Court.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent Police submits that the petitioner was convicted on the allegations the the petitioner has misappropriated a sum of Rs.4 crores for the offence under the provisions of Tamil Nadu Protection of Interests of Depositors (In Financial Establishments) Act, 1997. If leave is granted to the petitioner, there is a substantial possibility that the petitioner may abscond. He further submits that the petitioner's appeal filed as against the order of conviction in Crl.A.(MD)No.353 of 2022 was dismissed on 12.03.2025 and he has not filed any appeal as against the said judgment. Hence, he opposes this petition.

4.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed on record.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the quantum of amount involved in this matter and also considering the seriousness of the offence committed by the petitioner, this Court concludes that the petitioner is not entitled to avail the leave as sought by him.

6.Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed.
