2.The case of the prosecution is that on 18.10.2025 at about 09.00 a.m., while the defacto complainant along with police party was on routine patrol duty, they found one Surya standing in a public place with a long "Kozhi-Kaalaruval" in his hand. The said Surya was brandishing the said weapon in a threatening manner, shouting that he was a notorious rowdy against whom more than fifteen cases were pending in various districts and that none could do anything to him. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he has been arrested and he is languishing in jail from 18.10.2025. Therefore, he prays for grant of bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police opposed for grant of bail on the ground that the investigation is still pending. Further, the petitioner has 14 previous cases against him.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain
