The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.521 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that during Deepawali festivel, there was a dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, in which, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted his son with stone, thereby, he caused blood injury on his nose. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured persons has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that there are four previous cases pending against the first petitioner and there are no previous cases pending against the second petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to
