2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is alleged to have threatened the defacto complainant not to depose evidence against him in a murder case. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 22.10.2025. Hence, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the specific overtact against the petitioner is he has threatened the defacto complainant not to depose evidence against him in a murder case. Further he submitted that the defacto complainant has deposed the evidence on 17.11.2025. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and since the defacto complainant has deposed evidence before the trial Court, and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject
