ORDER

The petition is filed to quash the notice issued by the learned Magistrate, which states that the petitioners are called upon to answer the charges under Section 223 BNSS r/w. Section 198 of the BNSS.

2. The learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the impugned complaint is an abuse of process of abuse of law as none of the offences alleged are made out as against the petitioners.

3. It is the case of the petitioners that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence of forgery, which is said to have committed by the other accused; that there is a dispute between the first accused and the defacto complainant; that the petitioners have no role in the alleged offence of forgery or cheating or any of the offences alleged in the complaint.

6. With the above observations this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of. It is needless to say that if the learned Magistrate takes cognizance of the offence and decides to issue summons to the petitioners, the petitioners are at liberty to approach this Court for quashing of the complaint, if the allegations do not attract the offences. Consequently, the connected Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
