2. The gist of the allegations is that on account of prior dispute, the petitioner caused damage to the two-wheeler of the defacto complainant and thus committed the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner and the second respondent /defacto complainant are close relatives and the parties have now entered into a compromise and decided to give a quietus to the entire dispute. The parties have filed a joint compromise memo dated 07.11.2025.

4. The petitioner and the defacto complainant are present before this Court in person. They are identified by Mr.R.Saravanan, Special Sub Inspector of Police, Gangaikondan Police Station, Tirunelveli District. All the parties confirmed the compromise arrived at between them.

5. Considering the nature of the offences, relationship and the compromise arrived at between the parties, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the impugned final report
