3. The learned Government Advocate would submit that the audit of the 3rd respondent Society is still pending, and that only after the audit is completed and any objections are received can the matter be finalized; otherwise, it would be difficult to recover the amount from the petitioner. Hence, she submitted that no such mandamus be granted.

4. This Court is of the view that if any objection is raised in the audit with regard to the petitioner's amount, it is for the respondents to recover the same in the manner known to law, as provided under the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act, 1983. Having sanctioned the terminal benefits and credited them to the petitioner's account, the respondents cannot deny the petitioner to withdraw the amount already standing in his name.

5. In view of the same, there shall be a direction to the respondents to permit the petitioner to withdraw the amount standing in his Saving Bank Account.
