CRL MP(MD), No.19367 of 2025

6. Learned Counsel for petitioner made the following submissions:

a) that the Courts below ought to have seen that the alleged owner of the cylinder has categorically admitted that he had no documentary proof, receipt, delivery challan or identification particulars to establish that the cylinder allegedly recovered belonged to him. The cylinder number was not recorded and no steps was taken to establish ownership or identity. Prosecution failed to establish that the property allegedly recovered is in fact the stolen property forming the subject matter of the case. In the absence of proving the identity of the property, Courts below erred in convicting the petitioner for the offence of theft;

b) that Courts below have placed reliance on confession statement of petitioner to respondent Police to find the petitioner guilty of the offence of theft contrary to the mandate contained in Section 25 of the Evidence Act;

c) that there was delay in lodging of complaint, which raises suspicion;

d) that the Courts below had found that the offence is a minor offence;

7. Learned counsel would further submit that the petitioner has no bad antecedents; that petitioner has raised substantial grounds in the above revision, which requires consideration; and that he has also paid fine amount as per the order of the trial Court. Hence, he prayed for granting suspension of sentence and bail to petitioner.

8. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for respondent opposed the submissions of learned counsel for petitioner and submitted that judgments passed by Courts below are as per law after considering the entire evidence, thus the relief sought by petitioners at this stage be refused by this Court.

9. Considering the fact that there are arguable points raised in revision and taking into consideration, facts and circumstances of the case and that it is also likely to take a while before the revision is finally heard¹, this Court is inclined to grant suspension of sentence, on the following conditions, till the disposal of above Criminal Revision:
