ORDER

Heard both sides.

2. The Executive Officer of Arulmighu Ramanathaswamy Temple, Rameswaram is the writ petitioner. What is under challenge is the impugned assessment order passed under Section 74 of the TNGST Act 2017. It is seen that when the personal hearing notice was issued on as many as three occasions, the petitioner did not appear but wrote to the respondent seeking time on the ground that he is yet to receive guidance from his superior authority. The explanation given by the petitioner is not acceptable. However, taking into account the fact that the interest of the temple is involved, I quash the impugned order and remand the matter to the file of the respondent.

3. The petitioner shall appear before the respondent on 15.12.2025 and produce all the relevant records. On the said date, reply shall be submitted in person. It is for the respondent to proceed in the matter as per law, thereafter. This writ petition stands allowed accordingly. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
