Baby

... Respondent

Upon perusing the documents and case records of the above S.T.C.No. 2082/2024 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Nagercoil District transmitted to this Court and hearing the arguments of Mr.S.Ravi, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, on behalf of the State, this Court passes the following

ORDER

Prelude:

“This dedicated bench is for implementing the pilot project to identify and dispose of criminal cases involving offences punishable with imprisonment up to 3 years pending at trial, appeal or revision stage for more than 3 years and also offences like Section 506(ii) of IPC and others , which may carry a punishment of more than 3 years in the State of Tamil Nadu with reference to the 14 Districts coming under the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court”.

2.This Dedicated Bench has taken the S.T.C.No. 2082/2024 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Nagercoil as Suo motu Special Tr.Case.(MD) No.24105 of 2025 in Suo Motu W.P.(Crl.)(MD).No.1014 of 2025, upon proper scrutiny and considering its suitability that it is a fit case warranting the exercise of power under 482 of Cr.P.C. to quash the said STC., which is pending for more than number of years without any progress.

3.Brief facts of the prosecution case:

The allegation in this case is that, the accused was in possession of a number of liquor bottles without license and permission and hence a case was registered in Cr.No. 285/2024 for the offence under section 4(1)(a) of TNP Act and final report was filed before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Nagercoil and the same was taken on file in S.T.C.No.2082/2024.

4. Discussion:

4.1. The seized quantity is within the permissible limit for personal consumption as described under the Tamilnadu Liquor (Possession for Personal Consumption) Rules 1996 and hence this court finds no incriminating circumstances to continue the trial against the accused. Therefore no offence has been made out under the above said penal provisions of the Tamilnadu Prohibition Act. Further this case also pending more than number of years.

4.2. The prosecution, in the following report (extracted hereunder), has also stated that such types of minor cases have been pending for a long time, due to absconding accused, outdated addresses, relocation, deceased accused, and lack of updated information from complainants or witnesses. Therefore, they have requested that such types of cases may be disposed of as they now serve no useful purpose.

“These cases are minor in nature, yet they have remained pending for a long period, due to accused persons absconding or having relocated to other districts or states, incorrect or outdated addresses, or instances where the accused are found to be dead and lack of updated information from complainants are witnesses. All these cases are kept pending for a long period without any use.

Therefore, I humbly request that necessary directions may kindly be issued for the expeditious and early disposal of the long pending STC cases pertaining to the Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act 1937 in the Magistrate Courts”

4.3. Considering the factual and matrix and context, no useful purpose will be served by keeping the matter pending. Therefore this court is inclined to exercise the inherent power under section 482 of Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings.

5. Precedent Value:

The observations, discussions and decision made in this particular case can not be quoted as precedent in the cases arising in future as the decision has been taken in this suomoto writ based on factual and legal basis of this particular case.

6. Conclusion:

6.1. The case in S.T.C.No. 2082/2024 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Nagercoil is quashed.
