4. However, this Court is of the considered view that while dealing with matrimonial disputes that too where a huge quantity of gold is involved, the Police officials should be sensible in dealing with the matter and should be patient enough to sensitize the victim to understand the importance of participating in the in-house enquiry conducted by the Station House Officer.

5. In view of the same, the second respondent is directed to issue a summons afresh on or before 10.12.2025 to both the parties concerned, including the petitioner, her husband and in-laws and take positive and credible action in recovering the gold involved in the matrimonial dispute positively within a period of two weeks from the date of summons and therefore, conclude the enquiry within a period of 10 days therefrom.
