The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 448, 294(b), 506(i) IPC and Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Charging Exorbitant Interest Act, 2003 in Crime No.26 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant borrowed huge amount as loan for interest from the petitioner by giving some property documents and unfilled signed cheque. Subsequently, the defacto complainant returned the loan and asked for return of documents, but the petitioner asking excuses to return the document and thereafter the defacto complainant went to abroad. In the meanwhile, the petitioner and other accused persons went to the defacto complainant and threatened asking the loan and interest amount. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that it is a case of exorbitant interest and cheating. He further submitted that the investigation is going on and the petitioner has no previous case. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and since the petitioner has no previous cases and also considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Thanjavvur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)
