The petitioner/accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w. Section 4 of TNPHW Act, 2002, in Crime No.579 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant's wife fetching water in the tap, the petitioner who is residing in the opposite house, eve-teased the defacto complainant's wife by asking her to give company to him. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant using filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the petitioner is having two previous cases and the investigation is yet to be completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the nature of offence and inspite of the petitioner is having two previous cases, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain stringent conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Rajapalayam, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready and on further conditions that:
