2. Mr.R.Gowri Shankar, learned Panel Counsel takes notice on behalf of the respondents 1 and 2. Mr.T.Amjad Khan, learned Government Advocate takes notice on behalf of the respondents 3 to 5.

3. By consent of both the parties, the writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the admission stage itself.

4. The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner college is running B.P.Ed., degree course from the year 2017 and they have been conducting both theory and practical examinations in the petitioners' college itself for the past 8 years. The 4th respondent University scheduled the Odd Semester Time Table for the 2nd year B.P.Ed Students and the hall tickets had also been issued.

5. While so, all of a sudden, the 5th respondent vide mail dated 14.11.025 informed that they are withholding the examination for the 1st and 2nd year students. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner had approached the Additional Chief Secretary to Government Youth Welfare and Sports Development Department through his representative and explained the position. Based on his request, 4th respondent had informed that the examinations for the 1st and 2nd year students would be conducted at Dr.Sivanthi Adithanar College of Education, Thiruchendur. However, the Principal of the said college had orally informed that they will not conduct examination for the 2nd year and arrear students. In this connection, the petitioner had sent a mail to the respondents 4 and 5 to re-schedule the examination for 2nd year and arrear students. However, no action has been taken to date.

6. Further, the examination scheduled to be held for the 1st year students at the above mentioned college were also with held for no reason. Therefore, the 1st year students of the petitioner college had filed W.P(MD)No.34036 of 2025 and this Court by an order dated 24.11.2025 directed the university to conduct examination. Pursuant to which, the 4th respondent has rescheduled to conduct examinations from 26.11.2025 to 29.11.2025 at the above mentioned college.

7. However, with respect to the examinations for the 2nd year students and the arrear students, the respondents 4 and 5 have not taken any steps. Hence, the petitioner have filed the present writ petition.
