2. The case of the prosecution is that the deceased, who is the mother of the de-facto complainant is a retired government nurse and she was under the case of her daughters. Usually, the deceased used to sleep in her elder daughter's house. While that being so, on 01.09.2025, at about 06.20 a.m., the de-facto complainant's sister [A1] called over phone and informed the de-facto complainant that their mother is found dead with blood injuries on the left side head, covered with sand. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, she has been arrested and is languishing in jail from 30.09.2025. Therefore, he prays for grant of bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police though submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner, opposed for grant of bail on the ground that the investigation is still pending.

5. Considering the fact that there is no bad antecedents and the nature of allegation and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
