2. This writ petition is disposed of at the admission stage, after dispensing with the notice on the private respondent.

3. It is the case of the petitioner that he is engaged in painting works and has three daughters. In 2020, he came across a newspaper advertisement regarding a job opportunity offered by one Mahalingam. He subsequently met him, and Mahalingam informed him that a private job was available in Aadi Global Private Limited. To secure the job, Mahalingam demanded a sum of Rs.50,000/-, which the petitioner paid, believing his representations.

4. After six months, Mahalingam introduced the 3rd respondent to the petitioner, stating that he was an influential person who could arrange a Central Government job, demanding Rs.3,00,000/- as an initial amount. Believing the same, the petitioner paid a total sum of Rs.8,00,000/- to the 3rd respondent.

5. Further, the 3rd respondent informed the petitioner that there were additional vacancies and requested him to introduce his relatives and friends who were interested in Central Government jobs. Believing this, the petitioner introduced 13 persons between 18.06.2021 and 31.12.2022, and the 3rd respondent collected a total sum of Rs.1,62,10,876/- from them.
