3. Admittedly, the petitioners and the second respondent are residing in the same village and they have now entered into a compromise and decided to give a quietus to the entire dispute. It is a case and a counter case. The parties have filed a joint compromise memo dated 01.12.2025.

4. The petitioners and the second respondent / defacto complainant are present before this Court in person. They are identified by Mr.R.Rajkumar, HC-823, Vilathikulam Police Station, Thoothukudi District. The defacto complainant does not wish to pursue the said F.I.R as against the petitioners. All the parties confirmed the compromise arrived at between them.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations and the relationship between the parties, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the impugned FIR pending investigation. Accordingly, the impugned FIR in Crime No.277 of 2025 is quashed in entirety and the Criminal Original Petition stands allowed. Consequently,
