Court and the same was dismissed on 18.10.2022 and therefore, the Petitioner filed the present Criminal Appeal in CrI.A(MD)No.782 of 2022. The Petitioner also filed an application before this Court to release him on bail and this Court was pleased to enlarge the Petitioner on bail on conditions stated therein vide order, dated 29.11.2022. The Petitioner thereafter filed an application for relaxation in CrI.M.P(MD)No.105 of 2023 and this Court vide order, dated 5.1.2023, relaxed the conditions. The Petitioner thereafter again filed CrI.M.P(MD)No.14442 of 2023, wherein, this Court vide order, dated 13.10.2023, further relaxed the condition imposed in the order, dated 5.1.2023, by permitting the Petitioner to report before the concerned trial Court once in three months ie., on the first working day of January, April, July and October at 10.30 a.m until further orders. The petitioner has now filed this application to relax the condition imposed in CrI.MP(MD)No.14442/2023 in CrI.A(MD)No.782/2022, dated 13.10.2023.

3. The learned counsel for the Petitioner submitted that the Petitioner is appearing before the trial Court on the first working day from 13.10.2023, as per the orders of this Court. The learned counsel for the Petitioner further submitted that the Petitioner is constrained to apply for continuous leave in the Bank, to comply with the order of this Court, which is affecting his employment and therefore, prayed for relaxation of condition, as aforementioned.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side), appearing for the respondent/Police submits that in the trial, 17 witnesses was sought to be examined and out of whom, 16 witnesses have already been examined and one more witness remains to be examined on the side of the prosecution. The learned Government Advocate, would further submit that the trial is at the verge of completion. Therefore at this stage, further relaxation should not be permitted.

5.It is seen that this Court relaxed the conditions twice. The condition that was imposed in the order, dated 13.10.2023 is to appear before the concerned trial Court once in three months on the first working day of January, April, July and October at 10.30 a.m until further orders. Since the trial is at the verge of completion, this Court does not find any compelling reasons to further relax the conditions imposed by this Court vide order, dated 13.10.2023.
