The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 409, 419, 424, 465, 468, 471 and 477A of the IPC, 1860, in Crime No.300 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with other accused persons, was employed at the Kulasekharam Branch of the NBFC and indulged in fabricating false and forged documents by portraying them as original and genuine documents of the said company. They allegedly created false accounts for the purpose of cheating, thereby fraudulently removing gold ornaments and committing criminal breach of trust, and thus cheated the company. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.22865 of 2025

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused indulged in fabricating false and forged documents by portraying them as original and genuine documents of the company. They allegedly created false accounts for the purpose of cheating, thereby fraudulently removing gold ornaments and committing criminal breach of trust, and thus cheated the company. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that if the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the credit of crime number, the same would suffice to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with other conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court II, Padmanabapuram, Kanyakumari District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of
