conditions which may be imposed by this Court and he is in judicial custody from 22.03.2025. Hence, he seek bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the video depicting the entire scene of occurrence had already been circulated before this Court and that the trial had commenced; therefore, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and upon perusal of the video circulated by the prosecution, it prima facie appears that the petitioner has committed a serious offence. If the petitioner is released on bail, he may abscond the same. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
