The petitioners/Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 351(2) of BNS 2023 and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.168 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the 1st accused is the husband of the defacto complainant. Due to some difference of opinion, the 1st accused and the defacto complainant are living separately. Further, the 1st accused along with these petitioner had gone to the house of the defacto complainant and abused the defacto complainant and her daughter in filthy language and also threatened them with dire consequences.. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that due to some dispute, a false case has been given. He further submitted that the satisfaction of the Court has been wrongly mentioned as the Judicial Magistrate Court, Vedasanthur, whereas the correct Court is the Judicial Magistrate Court, Oddanchatram. Therefore, he seeks modification of the satisfaction Court. He further submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees
