The petitioners/accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 140(3), 296(b), and 115(2) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.448 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, due to previous motive, the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language, attacked him, and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution, and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the age of the 1st and 2nd petitioners, and also the fact that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

[e] on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners are released on bail by the learned
