2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and others intercepted the defacto complainant's friend's vehicle and attacked his friend namely Malis and abused in filthy language. They also took custody of them and attacked with aruval causing injury. Hence, a case has been registered as against the petitioners.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Further, the co-accused have been released on bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the offences committed by the petitioners are serious in nature. Further, there is no previous case against the petitioners and the injured has been discharged from hospital.

5.Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain
